ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

As a student who will graduate from President University, I would like to sincerely thank President University for providing me with a platform to learn. With the help of President University, I successfully completed a four-year academic program, obtained a bachelor's degree in management, and achieved relatively good results each year. I also gained knowledge from it and wrote this research paper. At the same time, I also thank all those who have helped me finish my studies:

1. I would like to thank my parents for providing me with my financial support during my college years, so that I can concentrate on my study and achieve excellent results. Without my parents' support, I would not be able to graduate successfully and obtain the degree certificate.
2. I would like to thank Mr.Li Wenguang for providing scholarships and living allowances for Chinese students and helping me study and live in Indonesia.
3. I thank my thesis supervisor, D r. Suwinto Johan,S.E.,M.M.,M.H, who is a very responsible thesis supervisor. During my thesis writing period, he provided me with guidance and support, pointed out the mistakes, and urged me to correct them in time.

4. I am grateful to all the teachers majoring in banking and finance, for providing me with theoretical and practical courses in college, and for supplementing me with my professional course knowledge, so that I can graduate successfully.
