ABSTRACT

Zimbabwe is known for its poverty due to food insecurity, based on article 77 of the Constitution of the Republic of Zimbabwe which states the guarantees towards the right to an adequate food. Meaning citizens of Zimbabwe have the right to sufficient food and water, hence, the development of agriculture is needed to achieve food security. However, with challenges from low rainfall, declining soil fertility, low investment, shortage of agricultural labor, and poverty and food insecurity decreasing the effectiveness to develop Zimbabwe's agricultural sector. Thus, in order to reduce and solve the challenges international cooperation is needed to provide assistance in developing Zimbabwe's agricultural sector. The objective of this research is to find out the cooperation between United Kingdom Department for International Development and Food and Agriculture Organization towards the agreement and implementation of the Livelihoods and Food Security Programme towards agricultural development in Zimbabwe during 2015-2017. This research will use qualitative methods to analyze the data that has been collected in answering the problems. The research has showed development and food security in Zimbabwe improved in nutrition, food, income security, increase in crops yields, adoption of resilient and sustainable agricultural practices, and the understanding of modern technology.

ABSTRAK

Zimbabwe dikenal dengan kemiskinannya akibat kekurangan pangan, berdasarkan pasal 77 Konstitusi Republik Zimbabwe yang menyatakan jaminan terhadap hak atas pangan yang layak. Artinya warga Zimbabwe memiliki hak atas pangan dan air yang cukup, oleh karena itu pembangunan pertanian diperlukan untuk mencapai ketahanan pangan. Namun, tantangan dari curah hujan yang rendah, kesuburan tanah yang menurun, investasi yang rendah, kekurangan tenaga kerja pertanian, dan kemiskinan serta kekurangan pangan mengurangi efektivitas pengembangan sektor pertanian Zimbabwe. Oleh karena itu, untuk mengurangi dan mengatasi tantangan tersebut diperlukan kerjasama internasional untuk memberikan bantuan dalam mengembangkan sektor pertanian Zimbabwe. Tujuan dari penelitian ini adalah untuk mengetahui kerjasama antara Department for International Development dan Food and Agriculture Organization terhadap kesepakatan dan implementasi Livelihoods and Food Security Programme menuju pembangunan pertanian di Zimbabwe selama 2015-2017. Penelitian ini akan menggunakan metode kualitatif untuk menganalisis data yang telah terkumpul dalam menjawab permasalahan tersebut. Penelitian tersebut telah menunjukkan perkembangan dan ketahanan pangan yang di Zimbabwe dari peningkatan nutrisi, pangan, ketahanan pendapatan, peningkatan hasil panen, penerapan praktik pertanian yang tangguh dan berkelanjutan, dan pemahaman tentang teknologi modern.
