Abstrak

Kekerasan terhadap anak baik fisik, seksual maupun psikis menjadi isu kesejahteraan anak yang paling banyak terjadi di Indonesia pada tahun 2021. Tindakan dan penanganan serius yang berdampak baik pada korban maupun pelaku sangat dibutuhkan untuk meredam isu tersebut. Artikel ini mengkaji peran Wahana Visi Indonesia sebagai organisasi kemanusiaan yang fokus pada isu kesejahteraan anak dalam menangani kasus kekerasan. Data diperoleh dari wawancara dan sebagian besar dari tinjauan literatur dalam laporan tahunan WVI, dan dokumen online, serta referensi data dari internet. Artikel ini membuktikan bahwa WVI berperan penting dalam memberikan perlindungan bagi anak di Indonesia, karena sebagai mitra pemerintah, WVI dan pemerintah bekerja sama mensukseskan program sistem perlindungan anak di Indonesia, baik dari segi akses atau keterjangkauan maupun dari segi dari kualitas program. Tidak hanya menghadirkan solusi berupa program penghapusan dan pencegahan kekerasan terhadap anak. Kita juga bisa melihat peran WVI sebagai lembaga swadaya masyarakat untuk membangun kepercayaan masyarakat, pemerintah, pembuat kebijakan, dan lainnya untuk memahami bahwa persoalan kekerasan terhadap anak bukan sekadar “urusan keluarga”. Sebaliknya, kekerasan terhadap anak adalah masalah global yang fundamental. Kita harus menghilangkan masalah ini dengan sadar untuk mencapai kepentingan bersama, SDG No. 16. Dunia yang aman bagi anak-anak karena mereka adalah generasi dan harapan bangsa di masa depan.

Kata kunci: WVI, LSM, perlindungan anak, organisasi kemanusiaan, kekerasan anak, hak asasi manusia.

Abstract

Violence against children, both physical, sexual and psychological, is the most common child welfare issue in Indonesia in 2021. Serious actions and handling that have an effect on both victims and perpetrators are urgently needed to reduce this issue. This article examines the role of Wahana Visi Indonesia as a humanitarian organization that focuses on the issue of child welfare in dealing with cases of violence. Data were obtained from interviews and mostly from literature reviews in WVI's annual reports, and online documents, as well as data references from the internet. This article proves that WVI plays an important role in providing protection for children in Indonesia, because as government partners, WVI and the government work together to make the child protection system program a success in Indonesia, both in terms of access or affordability and in terms of the quality of the programs. Not only presenting solutions in the form of programs to eliminate and prevent violence against children. We can also see the role of WVI as a non-governmental organization to build the trust of the community, government, policy-makers, and others to understand that the issue of violence against children is not just a "family matter." Instead, violence against children is a fundamentally global problem. We must eliminate this issue by being consciously aware of achieving a common interest, SDG No. 16. A safe world for children because they are the generation and hope of the nation in the future.

Keywords: WVI, NGO, child protection, humanitarian organization, children violence, human rights.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

This Final project would not have been possible without the support of many people. Many thanks to my advisor, Mr. M. Sigit Andhi Rahman, Ph.D., who read my numerous revisions and helped make some sense of the confusion. Also thanks to my examiner, Mr. Muhammad Farid, S.S., M.PA., who offered guidance and support to the revision. Thank you to the representative of Wahana Visi Indonesia, Aliya, for taking the time to help complete the data I need, providing me with numerous data and advice to complete this project. And finally, thanks to my parents, family, and numerous friends who endured this long process with me, always offering support and love.
