ABSTRAK

Saat ini pengalaman dan pendidikan menjadi salah satu bekal yang dibutuhkan dalam mencari pekerjaan di masa depan. Oleh karena itu, penerapan Program Magang merupakan salah satu cara yang dapat memudahkan para generasi muda khususnya mahasiswa mendapatkan pengalaman secara langsung dalam dunia kerja. Namun dalam pelaksanaannya Program Magang juga memiliki beberapa risiko yang justru membahayakan para mahasiswanya. Saat ini “Magang di Luar Negeri” merupakan salah satu modus penawaran yang sedang marak terjadi di Indonesia. Alih alih memberikan pengalaman magang di luar negeri yang berharga tetapi banyak mahasiswa yang dimanfaatkan dan mengalami eksploitasi tenaga kerja dalam magang tersebut. MigrAllies merupakan sebuah proyek sosialisasi yang bertemakan “Socialization for Preventing Exploitation of Indonesian Students during Overseas Internships in the Context of Protection of Indonesian Citizens Abroad through the Peduli WNI Portal and Safe Travel Application”. Proyek ini bekerjasama dengan Kementerian Luar Negeri khususnya Direktorat Pelindungan Warga Negara Indonesia. Program ini diadakan dengan misi untuk membantu para mahasiswa khususnya mahasiswa President University agar lebih waspada terhadap risiko yang bisa saja terjadi saat menjalani program magang di luar negeri. Dengan memanfaatkan bantuan dari pemerintah melalui Portal Peduli WNI dan aplikasi Safe Travel dapat memudahkan para mahasiswa di luar negeri jika memerlukan bantuan.

ABSTRACT

Currently, experience and education are some of the provisions needed to find a job in the future. Therefore, the implementation of the Internship Program is one way that can facilitate the younger generation, especially students, to gain direct experience in the world of work. However, in its implementation, the Internship Program also has several risks that endanger its students. Currently, “Internship Abroad” is one of the modes of offering that is currently rampant in Indonesia. Instead of providing a valuable internship experience abroad, many students are taken advantage of and experience labor exploitation in the internship. Migrallies is a socialization project with the theme “Socialization for Preventing Exploitation of Indonesian Students during Overseas Internships in the Context of Protection of Indonesian Citizens Abroad through the Peduli WNI Portal and Safe Travel Application.” This project is in collaboration with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, especially the Directorate of Protection of Indonesian Citizens. This program was held with the mission of helping students, especially President University students, to be more aware of the risks that could occur while undergoing an internship program abroad. Utilizing assistance from the government through the Peduli WNI Portal and the Safe Travel application can make it easier for students abroad if they need help.
